AND

SNBNCBS-ICRANET Satellite meeting on
Black Holes, Neutron Stars and Gamma Ray Bursts

Venues: Ffort Radisson (15-17)
Date 15th-17th February, 2008

Registration Deadline: 21st December, 2007

Dear Colleague,

There are several important announcements:

(a) The entire conference is going to take place in Luxurious Spa and Resort of VEDIC VILLAGE (10th-13th morning) and FFORT RADISSON (13th afternoon to 15th evening). All local hospitalities are included in the registration fees. Some transfort to/for the airport would be included.

(b) IN ADDITION: We are holding a two day Satellite meeting (15-17th Feb. 2008) on the Black Holes, Neutron Stars and Gamma Ray Bursts, to younger scholars working in Relativistic Astrophysics of Compact Objects. This is mainly open for those who are already attending and registering for the the Main programme. However a separate registration form is to be filled.

(c) Registration Deadline has been extended till December 21st, 2007. Please register to confirm your participation at the earliest. The Satellite meeting will have limited number of participants and it is possible we may not be able to accomodate all applicants. Because registration fee is only a fraction of the total cost, it will not be waived. However, some travel fund, to some needy participants and especially from Asian region would be provided.

Conference proceedings will be published by one of the publishers. This has not been finalized yet.

Prof. Sandip K. Chakrabarti and Dr. Archan S. Majumdar
(Convenors)
