TENDER TERMS & CONDITIONS

6. The contract shall be deemed to have been entered at Kolkata and all causes of actions in relation to the contract will, therefore, be deemed to have arisen within the Ordinary Original Jurisdiction of High Court, at Kolkata, and shall be deemed to have taken effect from (date) when the purchase order for the goods was issued to the contractor.

7. Termination of Contract for Default:

- i) The purchaser may, without prejudice to any other remedy for breach of contract, by written notice of default sent to the supplier, terminate the contract in whole or in part:
 - a) If the supplier fails to deliver any or all of the goods within the time period specified in the contract or any extension thereof granted by the purchaser; or
 - b) If the supplier fails to perform any other obligation under the contract within the period specified in the contract or any extension thereof granted by the purchase.
- ii) In the event the purchaser terminates the contract in whole or in part; the purchaser may take recourse to any one or more of the following action:
 - a) The performance security is to be forfeited;
 - b) the purchaser may procure, upon such terms and in such manner as it deems appropriate, goods similar to those undelivered, and the supplier shall be liable for all available actions against it in terms of contract.
 - c) however, the supplier shall continue to perform the contract to the extent not terminated.

8. Termination of Contract for Insolvency:

If the supplier becomes bankrupt or otherwise insolvent, the purchase may, at any time, terminate the contract, by giving written notice to the supplier, without compensation to the supplier provided that such termination will not prejudice or affect any right of action or remedy which has accrued or will accrue thereafter to the purchaser.

9. Force Majeure Clause:

- i) For the purpose of this clause, Force Majeure means an event or situation beyond the control of the supplier and not involving the supplier's fault or negligence and which is not foreseeable. Such events may include, but are not restricted to, acts of the purchaser either in its sovereign or contractual capacity, wars or revolutions, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, lockouts, and freight embargoes.
- ii) If a Force Majeure situation arises, the supplier shall promptly notify the purchaser in writing of such conditions and the cause thereof within 21 days of occurrence of such event. Unless otherwise directed by the purchaser in writing, the supplier shall continue to perform its obligations under the contract as far as reasonably practical, and shall seek all reasonable alternative means for performance not prevented by the Force Majeure event.
- iii) If the performance in whole or in part or any obligation under this contract is prevented or delayed by any reason of Force Majeure for a period exceeding 60 days, either party may at its option terminate the contract without any financial repercussion on either side.

10. Extension of Time:

- i) The supplier shall deliver the goods and complete performance of service on or before specified time period mentioned in purchase order.
- ii) If, at any time during the contract period, supplier encounters situation impeding timely delivery of goods and timely completion of service, it will promptly notify the purchaser in writing of the fact of delay, its likely duration and its cause. After receipt of supplier's notice, the purchaser will evaluate the situation and may, at its discretion, extend time for completion of work with or without penalty as per clause 9. If the purchaser agrees to extend time for delivery of goods or time for performance of service, the same may be done by issue of amendment letter with suitable amendment of the contract.
- iii) Other than situation mentioned in clause 9, clause 10 (ii) and clause 4 will be imposed for delay in delivery of goods or for delay in completion of service.
